DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen hundred and fifty-six, dedicate this edition of THE PANTHER to our school's patron saint, Patrick, the Apostle of Ireland. Whether our names be O'Connor, Schrichte, DeMatteo, DuMont, McRedmond, Resha, Kleiser, Beehan, or Burns, we are truly grateful for the many favors that our heavenly patron has obtained for us and our school and we hope that he will continue to show his patronal interest in us in our future lives.

THE MOST REVEREND WILLIAM L. ADRIAN, D. D.,
Bishop of Nashville

DIOCESE OF NASHVILLE
421 CHARLOTTE AVENUE
NASHVILLE 3, TENNESSEE

TO THE GRADUATES OF THE CLASS OF 1956:

You are to be congratulated for having successfully completed your course at Father Ryan, ----- congratulated, too, that you have been privileged above many others, to have been guided by qualified instructors on the path to true wisdom. You have learned that your life should be centered in God. And now He who is "the Way and the Truth and the Life" urges upon you by the lips of His Prophet: "Let wisdom be your guide; keep her at your side, ----- your guardian; cherish her, ----- your preserver. Here is the path that will lead you straight to your goal. Hold fast by the instruction you have received and never let it go; guard it as you would your life. Live as the Lord would have you live, and He will make even your enemies your well-wishers."

The world will challenge your principles again and again, as you plod your way on the narrow path; it will try your faith and your virtue as gold is by fire; but it can only serve to burn away the dross if you cling to Jesus! And our most sincere wish and prayer for you is, that God be with you and in you always.

Bishop of Nashville.

FACULTY

THE REVEREND FRANCIS R. SHEA, Principal

As another graduating class comes to the end of its course at Father Ryan, the thought occurs to me that it is very easy for high school boys to take for granted all the sacrifices that have made their education possible. It would be a shame for us not to acknowledge the great debt that Father Ryan owes to the Catholic community of Nashville. Without the loyal and generous support of our parishes, such a school as we have would not be possible to operate. I hope that our graduates will show by their successful lives and loyalty to their school that the sacrifices made for this institution have not been made in vain.

Principal.

CLASSES

*The cherished ambition of every generation is to pass on to its offspring
a religious and cultural heritage along with certain material advantages to provided for their future lives.*

At the cost of much personal sacrifice, the Catholics of Nashville with their Bishop and pastors, have provided an institution to perform the above-mentioned task in Father Ryan High School.

*Under the guidance of our faculty of Diocesan priests, aided by the Sisters of Mercy and qualified laymen,
we are provided a Catholic secondary education that teaches us the knowledge of God and the knowledge of men.
It leads us to a preparation for life after graduation and after death*

through the fields of religion, science, language, mathematics, history and all the other subjects that make up modern school life.

On the following pages we show you the students who made up those classes

and some of the things that they did in them.

Juniors live in a serious half-way house between seniors and sophmores. This year's class made quite a name for itself not only scholastically by having a goodly representation on the school's honor society, the STOA, but also in athletics, clubs, and the other things that make up school life. And after all that they still seemed to have energy to burn and put on a really super prom to top off the year.

Gentlemen! We give you the sophomores! A class some eighty-four strong which made its presence felt on campus in a variety of ways. We noted with pleasure that some of them made the ranks of the STOA. During the year we were intrigued with their well-done and clever projects in Father Julius' biology and Father Bevington's religion classes. Although not very many of them made Varsity teams, many of them did make a fine showing on our "B" teams and in intramurals.

Although the freshmen represented the largest class, we say with a note of approval that they were perhaps the quietest—which is appropriate considering their lowly position in campus society. A glance through the pages of this PANTHER shows that very few of them were busy about many things beyond the mysteries of Latin I and algebra. However, the fine spirit which they have shown during the year, especially during Frosh week, indicates that they will be a good sophomore class next year.

Frosh whose pictures were late appear on page 69.

Frosh Week brings terror to the heart of the freshman and delight to the heart of the senior. It consists in a series of well-organized activities designed to make the first year man realize his lowly position in campus society.

Classes do not tell the entire story of the life of a school year.

Whereas they do instill religion, culture, and knowledge into our sometimes unwilling brains,

they still do not present the complete and total picture of school life.

This other side is presented in this section of our yearbook.

These activities form a vital part of Father Ryan High School's offering to its students.

Through these activities pictured herein

we use the skills learned in our classes

but more than that we learn the important lessons of participation, cooperation, friendship, respect for the opinions of others,

and,

the principles of being good leaders and good followers.

That is why we feel that any student who has not participated in at least one activity has missed an important part of his education this year.

ACTIVITIES

JOURNALISM

The Journalism Club, one of the oldest organizations on the campus, is made up of the staffs of the school paper, THE MOINA; the magazine, THE LITERARY QUARTERLY; and the yearbook, THE PANTHER.

The three above-named publications offer the student interested in the field of writing numerous opportunities to express himself through the medium of the school paper, the magazine, and the annual.

THE MOINA is the oldest of the three publications. It made its appearance early in the history of Father Ryan. It takes its name from the pen-name of Father A. J. Ryan, poet-priest of the Confederacy, after whom the school was named. THE PANTHER takes its name from our school symbol, the panther. It, too, made its appearance early in the history of our school. THE LITERARY QUARTERLY is a comparative late arrival. It was begun to encourage student attempts at writing poetry, essays, short stories, and critical reviews of things in general.

3rd row, David Hardin, sports; Nelson Carney, reporter; Charles Pickler, reporter; Charlie Smart, sports editor; and Joe Jarvis, technical staff.

KEY CLUB

STOA

The Key Club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Nashville, is a select group of juniors and seniors organized to encourage good citizenship, leadership and service to the school and the community at large.

STOA is the Father Ryan Honor Society. Its members maintain an average of 90 or above in their classwork and participate in some extra-curricular activity. They are entitled to special privileges.

C. S. M. C. PANTHER BAND

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade tries to promote the true missionary spirit among the students by encouraging their prayers, sacrifices and alms for the Church's missions both at home and abroad.

Although we hear more from them at recess than at any other time, the members of the band are on hand to lend noise, color, and excitement to our football games and pep rallies. Mr. William Hoffman is their director.

C. S. M. C. officers are l. to r., Mickey Collins, secretary; Mike Nicholson, vice president; Jimmy Crawford, treasurer; and Charlie Smart, president.

PROM

The Junior Prom was the outstanding social night of the year. Under the guidance of Father Eiseman and the prom committee the gym was transformed into a little bit of Holland to fit the theme, "Tulip Time in Holland." Tommy Knowles and his orchestra played for the dancing from eight till twelve. The evening ended with a festive breakfast provided by the Woman's Auxiliary.

ATHLETICS

There remains one more side of our life that we should like for you to see—Athletics.

*We feel that it not only helps form strong bodies,
but that it helps our minds as well,
and on many occasions
it even helps us put into practice the Christian virtues that we have studied in a rather abstract way in religion classes.*

Here at Father Ryan High School

we feel that our athletic program has been given the proper balance in our school year—

not too much and not too little.

We are blessed in having two fine coaches,

Mr. Leo J. Long and Mr. Louis J. Catignani.

Whether a student is playing varsity, "B" team, or intramurals, we see and feel the fine Christian influence of these two men.

It is a wonderful feeling to win an NIL championship or even an intramural soft-ball game,

but win or lose,

it is more important to have that spirit that has characterized our Irish teams this year.

FOOTBALL

A look at the 1955 football record of Father Ryan makes us all aware of a glow of pleasure, especially when we consider that it was the first year at Father Ryan for Coach Louis J. Catignani and his assistant, Kim Smith. The Fighting Irish played nine games, winning six and losing three hard ones.

A glance at the score box tells the entire story of the 1955 season. Well, almost the whole story. It doesn't take into account the men and coaches who made those six victories possible. We can truly say this year that we were immensely proud of our new coaches and their team!

CAPTAIN JOE BATES

Joe is a four-year letterman, who played center his first two years and tackle his last two. He was the first player in the history of the NIL to win the Most Valuable Player award two years in a row. Among his other awards: All-City, '54-'55; All-State, '55; All-Southern, '55; and All-American, '55. A truly great player he will be sorely missed next year in the line-up.

LOUIE RESHA

Louis played only during his senior year but in that one season he showed a spark and drive that would have helped lots in previous seasons.

NORMAN BATSON

Norm played Varsity his junior and senior years. Every Irish opponent knew when he was in the center of the Panther line.

JOHN STRASSER

John played guard his junior and senior year. A serious boy, he put everything he had into the game.

JERRY BROWN

Jerry also played his junior and senior years. He has been claimed by many to have been the most under-rated guard in the city this past season.

BOB SULLIVAN

Bob played a fine game at end his sophomore and senior years.

JACK TERRY

Jack played tackle his junior and senior years.

JOHN HANLEY

John was a fine lineman for the past two years.

NICKY LYNCH

BASKETBALL

Three events stand out in this year's basketball season—winning the NIL season championship, Captain Louie Graham's breaking two NIL scoring records, and Coach Leo J. Long's heart attack.

For the second time in our history the NIL seasonal championship trophy will rest in our school trophy case. This year's Irish Quintet piled up an enviable seasonal record of 26 wins against only 9 losses. However, despite their great seasonal record the cagers went down in defeat in the semis of the 18th District Tournament.

Individually, Louie Graham led the team as captain and leading scorer. Louie broke two NIL scoring records this year.

The worst blow dealt our cagers was the heart attack suffered by our veteran coach, Leo J. Long, in the closing minutes of the DuPont game. However, Football Coach Louis J. Catignani took over the reins very capably for the remainder of the season. Coach Long was later awarded the "Coach of the Year" title.

Louie lettered for three years on the varsity. In his junior year he was 18th District Tournament's Most Valuable Player; he was also on the All-Tournament Team in the 18th District as well as the Region V team. This year he led the NIL in scoring and was on the All-City Team.

NICKY LYNCH

Nicky lettered for three years on the hardwood. He, too, made the 18th District Tournament team in his junior year.

BOB SULLIVAN

Bob, like the above two seniors, was a three year varsity man. He was an outstanding forward. This year he was eighth in NIL scoring leaders.

FRANK VARALLO

Frankie was an exceptionally fine guard who played two years of Varsity ball. His speciality was the long, set shot.

ARTHUR SUTHERLAND

A. J. played with the Varsity for two seasons. Playing center this year, he progressed with every game and proved a much needed asset for the Panthers under the baskets.

ANDY ARCHIE

Andy lettered two years in basketball. He served as a very fine reserve guard who did a capable job when called upon.

Letter of Acknowledgments

THE PANTHER

ANNUAL OF FATHER RYAN HIGH SCHOOL
2300 ELLISTON PLACE
TELEPHONE BR 7-0420
NASHVILLE 5, TENNESSEE

DEAR READER:

To those of us on the staff who have worked so hard toward its publication THE 1956 PANTHER represents a great deal. But even more than the hard work of those long, long afternoons after school we shall always remember the spirit of determination, cooperation, and willingness to work that characterized our staff this year. We would like to take this page to tell you a little something about our staff and the people who helped make this book possible—a look behind the scenes so to speak.

EDITORIAL BOARD

With the able help of the associate editors and their assistants, Joe Jarvis, Vic Coode, Charlie Smart, and Mike DuMont, the book ceased being a shadow and became a real substance. The format of the entire book, the page plans, and the copy were prepared with their able help. Father James R. Hitchcock, our moderator, was always on hand to lend the help of his experience and aid in keeping the book moving toward its appointed goal—publication.

PHOTOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT

To David Kuhlman and his able assistant, Phil Breen, we extend well-deserved praise for their work in taking the pictures, developing, and finally printing them. Life had its ups and downs in our photography department but you can judge for yourself from the pictures in the book the work that they have contributed to this annual.

THE BUSINESS STAFF

Johnny Ayers and Andy Harmon were our business managers. This all important side of our book was aided by the members of the senior class and the student body in general. To them we turned in desperation when it seemed that we would never make our assigned financial goal. To Andy Harmon and Stuart Cooke we extend a special vote of thanks for their hard work and perserevance, without them there would not be a 1956 PANTHER such as you are now reading.

TYPISTS

To Bennie Burns and Pat Sharbel we extend our thanks for their neatly typed copy which we finally presented to Mr. Shields at Ambrose Printing Company with a sign of relief.

DISTRIBUTION

To Arthur Sutherland and Andy Arhie we extend our thanks for distributing the finished book to subscribers, faculty, the pastors of the city, the parochial schools and the Most Reverend Bishop.

We would also like to thank:

The Most Reverend William L. Adrian, D. D., Bishop of Nashville, for his inspiring letter to the senior class;

Father Francis R. Shea, our principal, for his letter, his patience, and his many, many permissions; the faculty for their encouragement, cooperation, and help; the students, especially our fellow seniors, who obtained so many ads and sponsors;

And all our sponsors and advertisers, without whose help this book would not exist.

Sincerely yours,
John M. Hanley,
Editor-in-Chief
